Linking ORCID and eRA Commons

1. Log into eRA Commons

The screenshot shows the eRA Commons login page. It features a top navigation bar with the eRA Commons logo, a NIH logo, and the text "National Institutes of Health Office of Extramural Research". Below the navigation is a "Home" link. The main area contains two login options: "Login with Login.gov" (with a "LOGIN.GOV" button) and "Login with eRA Credentials". The "eRA Credentials" section includes fields for "Username" (tdandrade) and "Password", with "Login" and "Clear" buttons. Below these fields are links for "Forgot Password/Unlock Account?" and "(For External Users Only)". To the right, a sidebar titled "eRA Comm" displays "Recent News" and "Reminder: Federal financial assistance award". At the bottom, there are links for "Submit a Reference Letter" and "LikeThis".

2. Click on Personal Profile

The screenshot shows the eRA Commons dashboard. On the left is a vertical navigation bar with four items: "Status" (blue), "ASSIST" (purple), "Personal Profile" (yellow), and "Internet Assisted Review (IAR)" (brown). The "Personal Profile" item is highlighted with a yellow background. The main content area is titled "eRA Comm" with the subtitle "Track your application; manage and report on your federally funded award". It includes a "Recent News" section with a reminder about federal financial assistance awards, and a "Note" section for users with multiple eRA Commons accounts. At the bottom are links for "Submit a Reference Letter" and "LikeThis".

3. Verify that ORCID ID is present along left-hand navigation. If not, click the hyperlink and enable access. ORCID ID will then be linked and appear as below.

The screenshot shows the "Personal Profile" page. The left sidebar lists "Personal Profile", "Felicia Sosa", "Roles" (FCOI - External FCOI Officer, SO - Signing Official, AO - Administrative Official, FSR - Financial Reporting users), and "Person ID" (redacted). The main content area shows the "Personal Profile" section with a yellow background. It includes an "ORCID ID" field with the value "orcid.org/0009-0006-5192-1928" and a "View" link. To the right, there is a sidebar with "Recent News" and "LikeThis" buttons.
