Requests for IRB Roster/Membership Information

The Weill Cornell Medicine Office of Research Integrity (WCM ORI) does not publish or allow public access to IRB rosters or specific membership information. In accordance with WCM standards, no member of the IRB may participate in the review or vote of any human research study in which the IRB member is also a member of the research team, has a conflict of interest (financial or non-financial) or has any other interest which may have an impact on the member's ability to exercise independent judgement.

Information about member attendance during the review of specific studies can be obtained, upon request and approval by the IRB office. Requests can be submitted to irb@med.cornell.edu.
